WAGERED SHE WAS UNAFRAID.

When a Neighbor Tried To Scare Her
He Was Shot To Death.

Inez, Ky.—Mrs. Julia Booth, living on Big Elk creek, was lodged in jail at this place charged with the murder of Esau Harris, their next door neighbor. Young Harris and William Booth, it is stated, were the best of friends. Harris accepted an invitation to spend the night with Booth. While sitting around the hearthstone Mrs. Booth raised the question of cowardice, and said that before she would run she would blow a man's head off. Her husband told her that she could be frightened until she would throw her gun down and "run a steam engine." The argument progressed until Mrs. Booth wagered her cow against $25 with her husband that she would not run. Booth, it is said, persuaded Harris to feign going home and return about 1 o'clock in the morning and test the matter. Harris consented, and, on returning, rapped at the door. Mrs. Booth woke her husband and he refused to get up. She then asked Harris his name and what he wanted. Harris told her it was none of her business, and if she did not open the door he would break it down. Mrs. Booth, it is said, arose from the bed and without dressing procured a double-barreled shotgun and emptied both barrels into Harris' head, killing him instantly. When asked if she was frightened when Harris was at the door she replied that she was "not so easily scared as some people imagined she was."

GRANDSON AND OLD MAN

Were Riding Together When Hit By Train—Both Killed.

Owensboro, Ky.—R. L. Atherton, 62, a veteran of the confederate army, and his 14-year-old grandson, Earl Atherton, were killed on a grade crossing by a Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis passenger train. The accident occurred just west of Owensboro. The train was running at minutes late and was rounding a curve at a high rate of speed.

Atherton and his grandson were in a road wagon and the horses had just cleared the track. When the train rounded the curve it was too late to reverse the engine, and the wagon was hit squarely by the front of the locomotive. Atherton was hurled 50 feet in the air and his body fell in a pond of water. The top of the boy's head was cut off and he was knocked about 75 feet. Atherton was a respected farmer and is survived by a widow and 10 children.

Charity Ticket Refused.

Lexington, Ky.—A sensation was created at a city ticket office of one of the railroads entering the city when a fashionably dressed woman presented a certificate calling for a charity ticket to Cincinnati. The agent refused to honor the request.

State Printing Commission's Report.

Paducah, Ky.—The state printing commission took up the report of the subcommittee. John K. Hendricks, democratic nominee for attorney general, was invited to give his opinion as to the report, and he said that the bill should contain a maximum price.

Home For Widows and Orphans.

Louisville, Ky.—The district deputies of the Kentucky Grand Lodge of K. of P. met here. Among the subjects discussed were the Pythian home at Lexington for widows and orphans, and the number of new lodges which had been established.

HIS STORY TOUCHED STRANGER.

Furnished Money For Eccentric Character To Appeal His Case.

Lexington, Ky.—W. R. Reymann, who was accused several months ago of having set fire to the barn of Solomon Vanmeter in this county and given six years in the penitentiary, here for his second trial with witnesses who he says will establish a complete alibi for him. They are Charles Mathias and his 14-year-old daughter Florence, of Renner street, Cincinnati. They say Reymann was a their home at the time he is accused of having burned the barn. Reymann owned a hand-made wooden bicycle and it was the tracks of a bicycle ridden up close to the burned building that led the jury to believe Reymann guilty. The tracks having been described as unlike those made by a common machine. A man has been found, however, who says he rode a bicycle to the very place where the tracks were seen and from that point watched the fire. Reymann is a strange character. Nothing is known of his early history or of his family. He has traveled throughout the world, and says this is his first trouble. A stranger, touched by his peculiar appearance and his story, furnished the money with which to appeal the case.

TRACTION PROJECT

To Extend To and Revive Big Bone Springs Progressing.

Covington, Ky.—Moneyed men of Boone county and Erlanger, Kenton county, Ky., are interesting themselves in an independent traction line. Subscriptions for stock are in circulation. The line in question will connect with the C. N. & C. at Erlanger as soon as the extension of that line has been completed. It is claimed a delay will be met with the latter extension, as the property owners along the Lexington pike will give the C. N. & C. the right of way. James Erns, the president of the traction company has informed the promoters that he will survey the extension and get the blue prints as soon as the weather permits.

The line will touch the Erlanger Fair association. On the other hand it is the intention of the promoters to revive the Big Bone Springs, which in its days was famous as a watering place all over the country.

Want Lower Proof.

Louisville, Ky.—There is a strong movement among distillers and rectifiers throughout the state to obtain the entrance of all whiskies into bond at 90 per cent proof so as to bring the standard set forth by the pure food regulations and the present internal revenue standard on the same basis.

SUBSCRIPTION ONE YEAR $1.00

Advertising rates made known on

WITH an annual deficit of over $15,000,000 in the postal revenues, a reform is imperative. But where shall the ax fall? The Government in its postal fraud investigations revealed the fact that $20,000,000 was stolen each year by the railroads from the post-offices of the country, this, with the various swindles in the weighing and the abnormal high rates for the rental of postal cars, would net an enormous sum which would more than make up for any loss in the department caused by the free rural routes. Yet with all this graft and fraud in existence, Third Assistant Postmaster-General Madden says the blow should fall on the second class matter, the periodicals and newspapers; that the present postal rate of one cent should be increased to four cents a pound. This would mean the total annihilation of many a good paper and the rate of subscription would necessarily be raised. The newspapers are the greatest aids to the Post office Department. By actual proof and test the newspaper augments the first-class matter more than any other thing. A merchant testifies that from a single insertion of an advertisement in a certain periodical he received 3,466 replies, these with first answers and follow-up letters net on first-class postage $1,109.12. Notwithstanding this however, and all the $30,000,000 or more lost due to swindles, the blow, according to Mr. Madden, should fall on the publisher. Is it just?

THE OMAHA man, worth $100,000, who killed himself for fear of poverty, was, from the face of the facts, evidently not a weekly newspaper publisher, for such poverty is never theirs.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

Hon. A. T. Siler, of Williamsburg, has authorized the statement that he is a candidate for re-election to the office of Railroad Commissioner of Kentucky.

In a statement given out at Granville, Texas, Monday Senator Bailey claims he will be sent back to Washington by at least 116 out of 163 votes in the Texas Legislature on joint ballot.

The Executive Committee will make final settlement with the claimants and candidates of the late primary. The Central Committee will probably make choice of a Chairman and Secretary of the State Campaign Committee for service next year. Among those spoken of are Judge Henry B. Hines and Judge Eli H. Brown, Jr., for Chairman. Gen Percy Haly has declined to serve as Chairman.

BEREA COLLEGE.

OPENS WINTER TERM JAN. 2, 1907.

Berea College is the old time friend of the mountains. President Roosevelt says Berea has done more for the mountains than any other institution. Any one who visits Berea will see that this is so. And any one who visits the homes of those who have attended Berea will see that it is so.

When a young man or young lady leaves home to attend school it is the part of wisdom to go to the best school, even if it is a little farther away. Those who go to Berea—and hundreds are going—will make no mistake.

There is the best training for teachers—such as will enable them to get high-grade certificates, and also to actually teach high-grade schools. There is the best of true Academy and Collegiate work, with scientific apparatus and a library of 2,400 books. And there is instruction in the practical things as well. The advantages in music alone are worth a journey to Berea. [No small item is the chance to get acquainted with so many of the best young people from all the counties of Kentucky and from other states.

The Secretary, Mr. Will C. Gamble, will be glad to send full information about the numerous departments of this great school.

Mt. Vernon, Ky.

The Town Trustees have let the contract for grading, macadamizing and screening that portion of Main street lying west of Richmond street to railroad crossing—a much needed improvement.

The Richmond Register, which belonged to the estate of the late R. W. Miller, was sold Saturday to Thomas Pickels, the present editor, who will continue the publication of the paper.—Richmond Pantagraph.

You often hear of being "between two fires." That's nothing. The average man has so many fires built around him that if he were between only two fires he would decide the world is getting easy on him.—Ex.

CHRISTMAS CROWDS—The bazaar at Mrs. Brown's, which was opened on last Saturday has proved quite a success. Large crowds have attended each day and all were well pleased with the pretty selection of holiday gifts.

SCHOOL CLOSURES—On last Friday afternoon, with appropriate exercises, the public school of this place closed its term for the year 1906. The teachers, Mrs. G. M. Ballard and Miss Maggie Hansel, have given the utmost satisfaction both to the pupils and the parents, a thing rarely accomplished.

A couple of promoters were here the latter part of last week looking over the fire clay which is to be found in large quantities east of town. Mr. Hoblitzell, one of the most prominent capitalists and promoters in Eastern Kentucky, expressed his views very favorable as to the prospects for developing the raw material in this county.

STOLEN—On last Saturday night a horse thief stole from the farm of Jonas Brown, of near Mareburg, one good horse. This is the first time in a number of years that horse thieves have entered this county. Sheriff R. L. McFerron, with his usual alertness, is hot on the trail of the thief. A Mr. McFerron has sent letters to the officials of all the neighboring counties and the arrest of the thief is expected.

For quick results try our local ads.

The Grand Jurors seem to have been the only ones to have done business this Court.

XMAS SHOPPERS—Remember that a nice line of Christmas Toys, Candies, Fruits, and the necessities for the famous Pound Cake are to be found in Mt. Vernon at, MISS KATE MOORE'S.

LOST—Miss Frances Sparks Wednesday lost, somewhere on the streets of Mt. Vernon, a small gold watch, open face, monogram F. E. S. on back and a brown silk ribbon fob attached. Any one finding same will please return to her or to this office and receive reward.

CHRISTMAS TREE—The union Christmas tree of the Baptist and Christian Sunday Schools will be held at the Court House on next Monday evening Dec. 24. The house will be open at 7 p. m. for receiving presents, but the doors will positively not be open to the public until 7 o'clock p. m. sharp.

NEW DEPUTY—Wade Livesay has been appointed a deputy sheriff of this county by Sheriff R. L. McFerron. Mr. McFerron found that, although with three deputies already, he could not, owing to the large number of delinquent taxpayers, properly see to all his business. In Mr. Livesay he has chosen a man well qualified for the place and one who will perform his duty no matter whom it hurts.

XMAS—Only two more days in which to make your purchases for Christmas. Remember that I am prepared to furnish you all kinds of things for Christmas gifts. A few suggestions: a laundry bag or glove case for the gentleman, sofa pillow or trinket box for the young lady, a nice work basket for the matron. Many timely presents.

MRS. CLEO W. BROWN,
Mt. Vernon, Ky.

PIKE COMPLETED—J. W. Rider has completed the pike across the old town hill. It is a great improvement. The teamsters can now haul any of their loads over this road without having to call the help of other teams to pull them out of the mud, and instead of having to suspense with their coal hauling during certain months of the winter, the hauling can now be kept up incessantly for the entire twelve months of the year.

Very little has been done in Circuit Court this term; not a single murder case was tried. The $3,000 bond of Rufus Spires, held on the charge of murder, was reduced to $1,000. The cases against Will McClure and the one against Walter Delaney were dismissed. The case of T. J. Hilton, etc. against J. D. Hamm, admr. of the estate of Martin Hilton, was tried Wednesday and was argued before the Court last night. Yesterday the case of Ed Elkins, admr. against the New Livingston Coal Co. occupied the entire time of the Court.

ENGLISH-JONES—On Wednesday, November 28th, at 9 o'clock a. m., Miss Elizabeth English, of New Haven, Conn. and Mr. William O. Jones, of New York, were married at the First Presbyterian church, of New Haven, Conn. The groom is a son of Mrs. J. M. of this place, he was born and raised in this county, attending for a number of years the school here. About ten years ago he went out West and afterwards entered the United States Navy, from which he resigned after serving his full term of enlistment. For over a year now he has been connected with the New York police force. Mr. Jones has many friends in this county who all congratulate him.

The first semester of the 1906-1907 session of the Brown Memorial School closes to-day. The school is in a flourishing condition, with a remarkable good attendance. The standing of this institute as an elevating and up building factor in the education of the county is rapidly increasing. More prominent to-day than yesterday and the prospects of being still more prominent in the future. The curriculum is well arranged and adapted to the special needs and requirements of its students. When one graduates here, if that one desires to enter college he finds himself well prepared to enter on his course of study on a higher and more advanced plane than that one does not who has not received a good education.

You can pick the up-to-date and energetic merchant by his advertising.

G. T. Johnson will install an electric light plant for lighting his store room.

If the calculations of the Town Trustees are carried out Mt. Vernon will have every road and street within its limits macadamized in side of three years.

Wm. Arnold has sold his livery and feed stable to Shirley Fuqua. Mr. Elkin will move to town at once and take the stable under his direct management.

H. R. Franklin, Photographer, who recently came here and rented rooms over the Peoples Bank, was arrested to-day and placed in jail charged with stealing a watch from the home of Jess Proctor, of near Wildie.

In the suit of Mrs. Kittie Woods against the New Livingston Coal Co., for $5,000, the Judge gave preliminary instructions and the case did not go to the jury. Her son, Ed Elkins, was killed while at work in the mines.

NEW HOTEL—For some time there has been talk of a new hotel here. At last this plan has taken some footing. The scheme to build a large concrete building for this purpose is backed by some of the most prominent and influential business men of the town, and in all probability Mt. Vernon will in the near future be able to boast of a large and handsome new hotel.

RENT PAYS FOR THE LAND.

FERTILE SECTIONS OF THE SOUTHWEST, WHERE LAND SELLS FOR $15 AND RENTS FOR $5 PER ACRE.

One of the remarkable things about Eastern Arkansas and Northern Louisiana is the fact that cleared land rents for $5 per acre cash and can be bought for $7.50 to $15 per acre. It costs $6 to $10 an acre to clear it. Other improvements are slight and inexpensive.

The soil is rich alluvial, or made. It produces a bale of cotton per acre, worth $45 to $60. This accounts for its high rental value. Other crops such as corn, small grains, grasses, vegetables and fruits thrive as well.

Alfalfa yields 4 to 6 cuttings, a ton a cutting, and brings $10 to $16 per ton.

In other sections of these states, and in Texas as well, the rolling or hill-land is especially adapted to stock raising and fruit growing. Land is very cheap, $5 to $10; improved farms $10, $15 to $25 per acre.

The new White River country offers many opportunities for settlers. High, rolling, fine water—it is naturally adapted to stock and fruit raising. Can be bought as low as $3 per acre.

See this great country for yourself and pick out a location. Descriptive literature, with maps, free on request.

Nervous Indigestion

The action of digestion is controlled by nerves leading to the stomach. When they are weak, the stomach is deprived of its energy. It has no power to do its work. If you want permanent relief, you must restore this energy. Dr. Miles' Nervine restores nervous energy, and gives the organs power to perform their functions.

"For many years I was an acute sufferer from nervous indigestion; at times I was so dependent I seemed almost a burden. I tried all kinds of remedies and various physicians with little or no relief, until one night last summer I saw Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure advertised. I resolved to make one trial, which I did in the purchase of one bottle of Nervine and one of Heart Cure. In a few days I began to feel better, which encouraged me so much that I continued the medicine until I had taken more than a dozen bottles. I am very much improved in every way; in body, mind and spirit since. I make a special point to recommend the medicine, and I feel a sincere pleasure in knowing that several persons have been benefited through my recommendation."

CRASH ON THE NATION'S PURSE

IS NEEDED TO KEEP UP THE MILITARY DISPLAY.
—Plenty of Big Guns, With None to Work Them.

Washington, Dec. 19.—"Nearly two-thirds of the revenues of the federal government are devoted to the payment of charges and expenses incurred by past wars and in preparation for future wars," was the rather startling statement made by Senator Hale, of Maine, chairman of the committee on naval affairs, in the senate today. He said he did not believe charges or the country realized that fact because it had not been pointed out to them before. The senator made this impressive declaration during the debate apropos the bill to increase the artillery corps.

Senators Hale and Scott indulged in a discussion depicting increasing expenditures in the army and naval establishments. It was occasioned by the postponement of action on a bill increasing the artillery corps. Mr. Warren remarked that he should press this bill to a conclusion before the fortifications appropriation bill came up, as he believed it useless to appropriate between $6,000,000 and $15,000,000 a year to increase the fortifications of the country and then fail to provide men to properly man them. "We now have three guns to every man," he remarked, "and have expended more than $100,000,000 in carrying out the scheme of fortifications recommended by the Endicott board and yet have made no increase in the artillery corps."

As Bad in the Navy.
"The senator is right," said Mr. Hale. "The disease is just as deep in the navy, and I am inclined to think deeper, than it is in the army. I have tried for years and shall try again this year to keep down naval expenditures. But the military establishments are alike. Each is seeking to aggrandize itself."

"I don't suppose the people of the country appreciate it. I don't know that the senate does—that two-thirds of the revenues of the country today are devoted to the payment of the burdens of the past years, like pensions and expenditures in view of future wars."

SIX COMRADES
Perished in the Blizzard From Which Two Lumbermen Escape.

Portland, Me., Dec. 19.—It is considered a certainty that six out of eight lumbermen who started to cross Big Schoodic lake on the ice a week ago Friday, perished in a terrible north-easterly blizzard that swept over the lake shortly after they started. Two survivors of the party, George Angel, of Providence, R. I., and John Kernan, of Boston, arrived here, walking 200 miles from Bangor with their feet and ears frozen and blistered, and sick and exhausted from their terrible suffering.

Acting on information from these men, which was wired from here, a searching party went out in Schoodic, but could find no trace of the other six men.

Says Soldiers Fired On His Car.

Pensacola, Fla., Dec. 19.—Charges have been preferred by a conductor of a train from Pensacola to Ft. Barrancas, alleging that soldiers at that point fired on his car from ambush. On reaching Barrancas the soldiers, about 20 in number, alighted. The car stopped ten minutes at the fort before beginning the return trip. The conductor avers that within a short distance from the post, on the return, a volley was fired at him. He was on the rear platform and alighted, returning the fire with a revolver. He says his assailants, whom he recognized as soldiers, then fled.

Hits At Child Labor.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Senator Gallinger introduced an amendment to the pending bill to prohibit child labor. He would prevent the employment of children under 14 years from running errands, or any of the so-called street employments, as well as working in stores and factories. He exempts pages in the house and senate.

College For All Farmers.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Representative Livingston, of Georgia, introduced a bill appropriating $10,000 a year for the support of an agricultural college in each congressional district of the United States. The money is to be paid to states and territories and distributed as state laws provide.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Several sub-committees of the house committee on rivers and harbors met and Chairman Barton announced that the full committee will meet December 31 for final consideration of the rivers and harbors appropriation bill.

Some farmers think the very large one ear-to the stalk corn will produce more grain than two medium ears to one stalk, says the Southern Agriculturist. They are mistaken. Big one ear-to the stalk is not the thing; two well filled medium ears per stalk is the true system of producing the most grain per acre. The Agriculturists last fall advised going through the field and selecting the two ear corn for seed. The two ear seed corn will produce five or more bushels per acre more than seed from the one ear large corn.

R. B. Mullins lost a couple of good milk cows this week, by their breaking into a dry stalk field and eating of the dry fodder from the effects of which they died within twenty-four hours.

"WHY do I take Cardui"? writes Mrs. Jelema Mullins of Odessa, W. Va. "Because, after suffering for several years with female trouble, and trying different doctors and medicines without obtaining relief, I at last found, in Wine of Cardui, a golden medicine for all my ills, and can recommend it above all others for female complaints."
